Don't forget to gather all of your loose change and bring it to church to drop in the bucket this Sunday. If you don't have coins to bring, bills are also welcome!! And this year, there's an additional way to donate to My Coins Count—go to the MCA auction website and scroll down to the My Coins Count item and donate there.

In person Sunday School is delayed for the moment. Online/at home materials will be distributed toward the end of this week. We will aim to revisit this choice no later than Sunday, October 11.

Materials are available online here with this week's supplementary materials available every week at mennomennonite.org/category/education

Rejoice Magazine for the September – November quarter is available in the front lobby with additional copies now available we ran out previously. You are also welcome to request one sent by mail.

Questions for Moving Forward into our next phase of worship

- What have you appreciated about the season of outdoor worship? What do you miss about "regular" worship?
- Are there particular concerns you hold about worshipping inside the fellowship hall? What are your feelings about singing together in a confined space?
- Our Harvest Fest celebration is upcoming. Were there to be a meal of some sort, would you participate or not? Are you personally willing to invest in producing it? How might we make this celebration significant while observing the restrictions that we must?
- Is there something that you would like to see us try in these peculiar circumstances?
- For those doing video primarily, what would make that experience work better for you?
